

STANDING COMMITTEE ON PAY COMPARABILITY (CLEGG REPORT

The Report is due to be with the Prime Minister on 1 August. [For your own information, it will be here a few days in advance; a note has gone to the Prime Minister from James Prior (dated 19 July) suggesting that No. 10 handle the publication arrangements].

The groups included in the Report are Local Authority Manuals, NHS Ancillaries, Ambulancemen, University Manuals and Technicians.

---

CARTER RESHUFFLE

Nick Towers, Treasury, says they are being pressed for comments on the changes in the Carter administration. He wondered if we were intending making a statement.

Bryan Cartledge has confirmed that there will be no comment from the Prime Minister on the changes in the Carter administration. It is a purely domestic matter for the President.