

Mr Speaker

P.S. No reply necessary; I know what your life is like!

Dear Margaret,

Heartfelt thanks to you for your overwhelming kindness in performing the re-opening of John Wesley's House.
It must have done your heart good to feel the warmth of the welcome you received. You thruilled those who were there (and there were more than 800 at the Service) as my correspondence shows. The address you delivered could only have been given by someone whose heritage was in Methodism. I was deeply moved as I listened to you. P.V.O.

It was a shock for me when I found you had left. I did not want our Methodist folk to feel that I was preventing them being able to talk to you, & that is why I held back in the House, however, I was dismayed to miss your departure, & hope that you will acquit me of any discourtesy to you.

You are carrying heavy burdens Margaret, & I admire your courage and your unshakable integrity. I am convinced that the country realises that your strength of character is rooted in deep Christian convictions. Thank you for what you are.
Yours,
George.
