

PRIME MINISTER

EUROPEAN ELECTIONS

Back again I am afraid. Central Office now tell me that they cannot after all arrange this rally in two weeks and if you would kindly agree to doing this on 3 June all their problems would be solved! You will remember that you have now accepted to attend the Tilney's cocktail party in the evening, so shall I set this up for you? The choice is either London or the Exhibition Centre in Birmingham.

Can we go firm on the London venue please?

PS.

*I will - but please tell
Lord T that it means
I shall have no never shall me!*

11 May 1979