I spoke to Parry Jones - they are going to keep this date free for the PM and will reply formally to his letter

10 DOWNING STREET

From the Press Secretary

2 February 1982

Dear Jones,

Many thanks for your letter of January 12 renewing your invitation to the Prime Minister to appear on Panorama.

I have put to her your idea that she might give you an interview on April 26 close to her third anniversary of Government and she has agreed to my booking the date in her diary on a provisional basis.

I have reserved that date but clearly you should confirm towards the end of March.

As I believed I mentioned on the previous occasion the Prime Minister would be delighted if Robin Day was her interviewer.

I hope that we manage to keep this date. In the meantime may I belatedly reciprocate your best wishes for 1982?
