

00
025
subject very filed on:-

India: Relations: P-2

Miss Pushpa Rege,
Special Assistant to High Commissioner

HIGH COMMISSION OF INDIA
INDIA HOUSE,
ALDWYCH,

LONDON, W.C.2.

PRIME MINISTER'S
PERSONAL MESSAGE

SERIAL No. T 593/82

No. LON/POL/123/1/82

5th April, 1982

Dear Mr. Coles,

I have the honour to convey the following message from Prime Minister Smt. Indira Gandhi to the Rt.Hon. Margaret Thatcher, Prime Minister of United Kingdom:

ADL 5/4
h-a.

BEGINS:

"Thank you for your message on the occasion of our Republic Day.

I reciprocate your sentiments and sincerely hope that the friendly relations between our two countries will strengthen further.

My good wishes, for your wellbeing and for the prosperity of the friendly people of your country.

INDIRA GANDHI. "

ENDS.

I shall be grateful if the message is brought to the attention of the Rt.Hon. Prime Minister as early as possible.

Yours sincerely,

P. Rege
(Pushpa Rege)

Mr. A.J. Coles,
Private Secretary to the Prime Minister,
10 Downing Street,
LONDON SW1.