

010

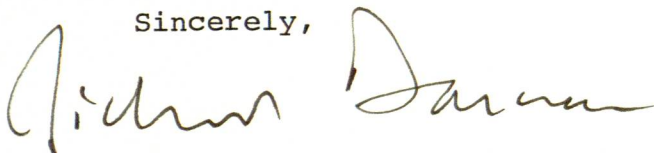

THE WHITE HOUSE

June 9, 1982

Dear Prime Minister:

I would like to thank you for the luncheon you and Mr. Thatcher gave in honor of the President during his recent visit to the United Kingdom. Your gracious hospitality was most appreciated and the affair offered a splendid opportunity for the President and other American officials to meet with members of your Government. The cordial atmosphere was indicative of the warm and friendly relationship between both our Governments.

Sincerely,

Richard G. Darman
Assistant to the President
Deputy to the Chief of Staff

The Right Honorable Margaret Thatcher, MP
Prime Minister
10 Downing Street
London, SW1