PRIME MINISTER

1. Two Ministers of State have said to me, quite independently, that they would welcome the chance of a talk with you.
2. They are Neil Marten and Nicholas Ridley.
3. There is no burning issue which either wishes to raise with you; nevertheless, may I please ask Caroline to fit them in, separately, say for 20 minutes each, and on the basis that you would like to have a general chat with them, rather than that you have heard that they would like to see you?
