The Rt. Hon. Mrs. Margaret Thatcher, M.
The Prime Minister,
10 Downing Street,
London SW1.

Dear Margaret,

Your note on my letter regarding your 1968 CPC Lecture is most generous to me; but it risks doing you an injustice. Whatever credit may accrue to me, my role was largely catalytic; I could function only because the catalysts were ready.

Your lecture demonstrates that they were. I enclose a photocopy. You might agree that there is room for reproducing it as part of a pamphlet by you, or by us here in the CPS, called - "Twelve years on: from ideas to policies," or some such title.
