

NOTES FOR ACTION

Following Meeting at Centre for Policy Studies
on September 20

1. The initial objective is to prepare a report for 'decision makers' in the Conservative Party. Subsequently, it may be decided to publish our work.

2. The order of the report will be as follows:

	Action by
i. history of intervention in the energy market	Neville Beale and Duncan Burn
ii. past failures in forecasting and planning
iii. the case for the market	Ralph Harris
iv. suggestions for greater market freedom in:
a) coal	Philip Ross
b) oil and gas	Colin Robinson
c) nuclear energy	Duncan Burn
d) alternative energies	Keith Williams
v. the place for government action and the problem of market failures	Everyone
vi. summary of proposals

3. Comments on the papers which were circulated before the last meeting should be sent to Neville Beale as soon as possible, and contributions for item 2.v should go to Philip Vander Elst before the end of October.

4. Neville Beale has kindly agreed to edit the whole document.

5. The next meeting is on November 9th at 6.30 at the Centre for Policy Studies.

~~9th Nov~~
15th Dec

/
With Compliments

WITH THE ABOVE
Following Meeting at Centre for Policy Studies
on September 20

The initial objective is to prepare a report for to the Conservative Party. Subsequently, it may publish our work.

Philip

Centre for Policy Studies

8 Wilfred Street London SW1E 6PL

Telephone 01 828 1176