

9th Nov 1982.

10 DOWNING STREET

After the Te Deum - Another wonderful service. The Sun came out as the Queen took up her place. There was not a sound during the 2 mins silence.

It was Michael Foot's first attendance and he was a little uncertain what to do.

The Bishop of London (Bishop Leonard) took the service - it was his first time. All went well - but he told me afterwards that he had been a little uncertain about the service ceremonial.

After the service I had a talk with the Directors of the about Edward Boyle's Memorial service. I hope we shall have a full school ~~meeting~~ <sup>attendance</sup>. The Director is reading the lesson and says that all the music that Edward loved has been chosen.

I saw him in July - three months before his death from cancer.
His spirit in appearance he had changed from the Edward I knew at Oxford. He is irreplaceable.
