THE PRIME MINISTER

28 January 1980

Dear Lord Elgin,

Thank you for your letter of 22 January, and for your kind invitation to Mr Thatcher and me to stay with you at Holyroodhouse in May and to visit the General Assembly.

It was very good of you to invite us, but I fear that my commitments at that time mean that we will not be able to be with you. I am so sorry.

Yours sincerely
Margaret Thatcher

The Earl of Elgin and Kincardine DL JP
