

Haig says he can't get an agreement unless our Task Force stops. It is arguable that the opposite is the case :
that he won't be able to get
an agreement unless our Task Force keeps going .

When the withdrawal specified

in paragraph 2 has ~~been~~

~~was~~ progressed for one week,

the United Kingdom task force will be held at the point where it has been reached.

During the period of the withdrawal no military or security forces of either signatory shall, without the agreement of the

The U.K. agrees that, during the
withdrawal,

international

Once the international observers have confirmed that the withdrawal is fully under way, the UK will stand off its task force

NO

We shall have observers policing the withdrawal.

Could we say that the Task Force will not sail south of the 35° parallel during the ~~two weeks of~~ the ~~withdrawal~~ process of withdrawal.

During the course of the withdrawal specified in paragraph 2, the United Kingdom take care not to approach closer than within 500 nautical miles ^{from} ~~of~~ ~~the~~ of the three areas defined in paragraph 2 ~~of~~ ~~the~~ Argentine mainland.

*. making a total of 650 nautical miles from the centres of the areas.

Could you leave this out of the agreement, but say that,
as soon as the withdrawal has been under way for X hours, we will hold the Task Force wherever it
then is, ~~and~~ until the completion of withdrawal.

SN Yes - but they (~~are~~ Haip) bound to come back again, with other requests.

RA. Could you agree to hold the invasion force
at Ascension,
and the naval task
force not less than 2500 (a 1000) miles
away from the Falklands

After the date of this agreement and pending a definitive settlement, no military or security force shall be introduced into the areas defined in paragraph 2 above. During the course of the withdrawal specified in paragraph 2, the United Kingdom task force will not approach within 500 nautical miles of the three areas defined in paragraph 2 or of the Argentine mainland. After the completion of the withdrawal, ~~at the time~~ specified in paragraph 2, all forces that have been deployed in connection with the current controversy shall be redeployed on other duties.

Haig says he can't get
an agreement unless our Task Force stops. It is arguable
that the opposite is the case:
that he won't be able to get
an agreement unless our Task Force keeps going.

When the withdrawal specified
in paragraph 2 has ~~been~~ ~~was~~ proposed for one week,
the United Kingdom task
force will be held at
the point where it has
been reached.

During the period of the withdrawal
no military or security forces of
either signatory shall, without the
agreement of the

The U.K. agrees that, during the
withdrawal,

international
Once the observers have confirmed that the withdrawal is
fully under way, the UK will
stand off its task force

NO

We shall have observers
policing the withdrawal.

Could we say that the
Task Force will not sail
south of the 35° parallel during the ~~two weeks~~
the ~~withdrawal~~ process
of withdrawal.

During the course of the withdrawal specified in paragraph 2, the United Kingdom task force will not approach ~~closer than~~ within * 500 nautical miles ^{from} ~~of~~ the three areas defined in paragraph 2 ~~from~~ ^{or of} the Argentine mainland.

*. making a total of 650 nautical miles from the centres of the areas.

Could you leave this out of
the agreement, but say that,
as soon as the withdrawal
has been under way for
X hours, we will hold the
Task Force wherever it
then is, ~~and~~ until the
completion of withdrawal.

SN: Yes - but they (Haip) would come back again
with other requests.

RA: Could you agree to hold
the invasion force
at Ascension,
and the naval task
force not less than 2500 (a 1000) miles
away from the Falklands

After the date of this agreement and pending a definitive settlement, no military or security force shall be introduced into the areas defined in paragraph 2 above. During the course of the withdrawal specified in paragraph 2, the United Kingdom task force will not approach within 500 nautical miles of the three areas defined in paragraph 2 or of the Argentine mainland. After the completion of the withdrawal, ~~all forces~~ specified in paragraph 2, all forces that have been deployed in connection with the current controversy shall be redeployed on other duties.