

PRIME MINISTER MOVING INTO NO. 10

You will see from the diary that the Prime Minister plans to move into No. 10 on Sunday, 3 June.

Caroline Stephens tells me that the PM will be moving to and fro between Flood Street and No. 10 on Sunday and will actually take up residence here on Monday. However, to avoid having a gaggle of photographers outside No. 10 whilst the Prime Minister is moving in, she would prefer us not to be specific about the timing of the move. If we are asked about this, we can say that the Prime Minister plans to move into No. 10 early next week.
