

PRESS OFFICE BULLETIN

date:

23 November

Foreign and Commonwealth Office announced at 1400 that our High Commissioner in Lusaka, Sir Leonard Allinson is returning to London today. He will meet Lord Carrington to review recent developments affecting Anglo-Zambian relations.

BACKGROUND - NOT FOR USE

There has been an unsuccessful attempt (s) today to get President Kaunda to talk to the Prime Minister. So far he has been unwilling to do so. Sir Leonard and Lady Allinson will arrive at Heathrow at 06.25 tomorrow (Saturday) FCO are being vague about the timing of his departure from Lusaka to as to spare him possible harassment on his way out to the airport.

Source: Nick Fenn, FCO.

AW