

PRIME MINISTER

The Governor of the Bank of England was to have seen you tomorrow morning (Wednesday 4 July). He was cancelled because of the meeting tomorrow afternoon to discuss mortgage rates. Tim Lankester wonders whether you would like to give him lunch alone next Monday 9 July. You have an 1145 meeting that morning with the Foreign Secretary and the Secretary of State for Defence to discuss The Queen's visit to Zambia and the CBI at 1500 hours followed by E Committee at 1600 but this would be possible if you agreed to it. Otherwise I could fit him in for half-an-hour sometime next week.

PRIME MINISTER

The Governor of the Bank of England is in Basle next Monday so will not be able to lunch with you. As you do not have another free day ^{for hand} before the House rises I have fitted him in for half an hour on Friday 13.
