

Strength comes from within, within ourselves our homes, our vocation, our fellowships, our communities + nations. Each one of us must kindle the "spark within".

If the foundation of our thinking + doing is strong, then + only then will the structure of human society be lasting + effective.
We must - completely + simultaneously develop, body, mind, + spirit in the abiding truths of the Gospel of Christ + by our individual expression of that truth meet the challenges which today engulf us. By discovering this flame within we do indeed discover ourselves.

Having discovered the light within ourselves we have to project that light into our thinking + acting in every department of our living + so by develop our own power.

The Kingdom of God is within you

We should conscientiously determine
