THE PRESIDENT

Your Majesty,

As we fly home, I wanted to send you this note simply to try to say thank you for yesterday's unforgettable hospitality.
Barbara & I were both so very pleased to meet you.

It was so nice, as well, to see Prince Philip again.

We love those two special pictures. They will grace our residence. As for the picture of you and the puppys I expect I'll see that when I go to sleep at night and awake the next day with profound respect. Gratefully Cecilia Bond
