AM 9.

Dear Margaret,

Last week's visit to Scotland was a considerable success despite the inevitable demonstrations.

However apart from the political value of the industrial and scientific aspects of the tour you had the opportunity of witnessing some of the worst and best of Scotland. I refer to the rudeness of the STUC and the crudeness of the Aberdeen rent-a-mob contrasting with the welcome you received from your supporters, particularly demonstrative at the Haddo House reception.

Happily the weather was excellent enabling you to enjoy the perfect scenery on the long distances one has to travel between locations in Scotland.

I trust you were not too tired as a result and that you felt it had been worthwhile.

*Yours age
Graham*
