SIR ROBERT ARMSTRONG

National Union of Mineworkers:
National Miners' Left Club

The Prime Minister has seen the report in IAG(80)10 on the activities of the National Miners' Left Club and she has asked whether this is not the kind of case where some publicity, arranged under Mr. Deverell's auspices, might be useful.

I should be glad to know what you think.

Owing to its very sensitive nature it must not be placed on a normal Departmental file. It should always be despatched under personal cover and handled by authorised messenger service only.

When no longer required the document should be returned, via your Control Officer, under personal cover to Mr. M. Williams or Mr. R. D. Roscoe, Cabinet Office, S.W.1, and NOT destroyed under Departmental arrangements.
