

GENERAL ZIA.

10 DOWNING STREET

THE PRIME MINISTER

11th August 1983

My dear Mr. President:

Thank you very much indeed for so kindly sending to me the four boxes of mangoes. I do appreciate your thoughtfulness and I know that we will all enjoy the mangoes. They are such delicious fruit. Warm regards.

Yours sincerely

Raymond Thatcher

General Mohammad Zia-ul Haq

With the compliments of
GENERAL MOHAMMAD ZIA - UL HAQ

ZIA

c. Ambassador of Pakistan

9th August 1983

May I thank you most warmly for your welcome message and for the beautiful flowers which you sent during my recent stay in hospital. They gave great pleasure both to me and to everyone who saw them.

But most of all I appreciate your thoughtfulness. At times like this, the kindness of friends is the greatest tonic of all.

His Excellency General Mohammed Zia-ul-Haq
