TO: The Prime Minister

You asked me to chase up some points during your visit to East Anglia.

1. I have mentioned to Douglas Hague that you would like a speech from him on unemployment. He will be delighted to do this but wonders whether he could discuss his ideas for 5 - 10 minutes with you before putting pen to paper.
2. I have taken up the question of the Ipswich By Pass and how to involve Liz Cotterell with Lynda Chalker.
3. I imagine the best time to pursue your idea of arranging for several quick stop offs in your Election tour to help key Candidates with local stories would be after you have decided on the basic programme.
4. Following your suggestion to hold a Candidates Reception at 10 Downing Street, Tony Royle is taking the matter up with your Office.
5. You asked me to find out what was the relative position of the Parties in Australia when Malcolm Fraser went to the country. Apparently Labour was in the lead.
6. Gordon Reece is not due back until Easter.
