Dear Miss Brown

Thank you for your letter of 4 April.

I hope you will enjoy your visit to the Falklands. I have no doubt that our servicemen out there will. My love and admiration to them all and to their relatives.

My thoughts are very much with the families who will be there at the same time as you. You will all find the islanders emotional and fully appreciative of the sacrifices made for their liberty.

Let me know as soon as you return. Come to Chequers for a meal - it will be less public than No. 10.

Miss Janet Brown

Yours sincerely
Margaret Thatcher
