

Healey in Birmingham today:-

"She decided to rap herself in the Union Jack and exploit the sacrifices of our armed forces and she hopes to get away with it.

This Prime Minister who glories in hatred has taken advantage of the professionalism of our armed forces in the Falklands and is at the same time lending millions of pounds to the military government in Buenos Aires to buy weapons, some of the British, to kill our soldiers. I call it stupifying hypocrisy."

Shirely telephoned. The Chairman is in Bushey this evening - but can be got hold of by telephone. BBC TV News have asked if anyone will be replying to this quote, and the Chairman is quite happy for his name to be used if we want.

The Press Conference tomorrow morning is Foreign Affairs with Francis Pym.
