Dear Prime Minister,

Congratulations on what must be one of the greatest personal political triumphs of this century! What a tribute, and recognition, of all that you have achieved for us in the last four years. It is absolutely marvellous.

No answer expected, but I look forward to making the best contribution
I can during the next five years.

Yours ever,

Robin

THE PRIME MINISTER

Dear Bob.

Thank you so much for your letter and for your kind words which I very much appreciate. Like you I am looking forward to the next five years. I have no doubt that it will be an exciting and, for our country, a successful time.

Yours

Raymond
