NOTES FOR EDITORS

A list of all the members of the Cabinet is attached.

Mr Whitelaw will be Leader of the House of Lords. The Queen has been pleased to approve that the dignity of a Viscountcy of the United Kingdom be conferred on him.

Mr Biffen will be Leader of the House of Commons.

As Secretary of State for Trade and Industry, Mr Parkinson will be in charge of a Department of Trade and Industry which will be responsible for the functions of the present Department of Industry and the commercial relations and trade functions of the present Department of Trade. The regulatory functions of the Department of Trade - including responsibility for consumer affairs, company law, companies registration, competition policy, the insolvency service, insurance, and the Patent Office - together with certain regulatory responsibilities previously intended to be discharged by the Department of Industry in the field of telecommunications and by the Home Office in the field of radio frequency regulation, will be brought together in an office which will report to a Minister for Corporate and Consumer Affairs under the direction of the Secretary of State for Trade and Industry. Responsibility for the work of the civil aviation and shipping divisions of the present Department of Trade will be assigned to the Secretary of State for Transport.

Transfer of Functions Orders will be laid before Parliament as required.

The Queen has been pleased to approve that Mr Wakeham be sworn of Her Majesty's most honourable Privy Council.
