Dear Mr. Bennett,

I understand you have been in London for medical treatment. This note comes to you with every good wish for a full and speedy recovery.

I shall never forget your welcome and the notes the day I arrived in Port Stanley. It was the most-moving visit of my life. Some experiences and memories are etched on one's heart. Such is the Falthlands story, a story of human faith and brave endeavour.

Kind regards.

Yours sincerely
