

10 DOWNING STREET

THE PRIME MINISTER

14th June 1983

Dear Alfred

Once again, you have done an absolutely first class job during the General Election Campaign, and I could not be more grateful.

Now we must build on our success; despite the splendid majority we cannot be complacent, however, and I hope you will continue to keep in touch.

With every good wish to you both,

*Lawrence
Payne*

Sir Alfred Sherman.
