Dear Mrs. Thatcher,

On this day you made memorable in the nation's history, may I offer personal felicitations on the resounding endorsement of your resolute leadership?

I pray that the blessings of the Almighty will be with you, in good health, as you continue to guide the destinies of our country through these turbulent times on the firm foundations of our moral heritage which you have done so much to uphold and promote. May your supreme service help to make the world safer, freer, nobler and more peaceful, to the enduring acclaim of history.

With respectful greetings and warm regards,

Most sincerely yours,

Immanuel Jakobovits

Chay Rabbi.
