THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

June 16, 1983

Dear Margaret:

Congratulations again on your well-deserved landslide victory. I also want to thank you again for your participation at Williamsburg. I know how difficult it was to spend time out of your country during an election campaign, but your contributions to the success of the Summit were significant and greatly appreciated.

During our planning for the Summit we were helped immensely by the advice and counsel of both the Canadians and French as prior Summit hosts. Similarly, I would like to offer you the assistance of our Williamsburg Summit planners. I have asked my Deputy Chief of Staff Michael Deaver to work with your officials and to be of whatever assistance you desire.

With warm regards,

Sincerely,

Ron

Margaret Thatcher, M.P.
