Dear Prime Minister,

I would like to thank you most sincerely for the very kind expression of best wishes on my re-election to the office of the President of the Federal Republic of Nigeria. I am happy indeed that it is also a victory for democracy which we all cherish. May I seize this opportunity to express my sincere determination to continue to further strengthen the cordial ties between our two countries and peoples.

I look forward to meeting you again at the Commonwealth Heads of State and Government Meeting in New Delhi in November.

Please accept, Prime Minister, the assurances of my highest consideration.

Yours Sincerely,
