1st September, 1983

Madam Prime Minister,

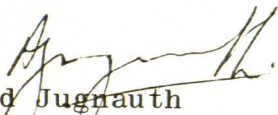

I am touched by your warm congratulations on my electoral success and my continuation in the office of Prime Minister, and I convey to you my deepest appreciation.

I assure you of my own desire of continuing to work with you towards strengthening the ties of friendship between our two countries.

I also hope that we can continue to rely on your personal understanding and on your country's continued assistance to Mauritius in our developmental efforts.

With kind regards.

Yours sincerely,

Anerood Jugnauth
Prime Minister
