PERSONAL

Dear Sir Andrew,

Thank you for your letter of 26 October.

It is a great shame that the Society's plans should have been disrupted in this way. But I entirely understand your position, and I agree that in the circumstances the best course is to postpone the admission ceremony.

I need hardly say that this incident does not detract one jot from the honour which I feel in having been elected to the Fellowship.

I look forward greatly to entertaining you and your wife to lunch on 16 November.

Yours sincerely
Margaret Thatcher

Sir Andrew Huxley, F.R.S.
