

10 DOWNING STREET

27th April, 1984

Dear Ronnie

The European Elections take place on Thursday, 14th June. The Prime Minister will be recording her Party Election Broadcast for television on either the Sunday night, 10th June or Monday morning, 11th June.

She would be enormously grateful if you could do her a draft for this. Perhaps we can have a word about this fairly soon and I can fill you in on details.

However, I should mention at this stage that in the week immediately preceding the 10th June the Prime Minister will be fully occupied because she is hosting the economic summit. This means that she will want to put her mind to the P.E.B. first in the week of the Bank Holiday (beginning 28th May) when the House is in recess. We have therefore earmarked in the diary Tuesday, 29th May at Chequers, for perhaps lunch and the afternoon, for doing some work on this.

*Kindest regards
Yours
Stephen*
