

Working Dinner

Statement of Democratic Values

Following D Day, must all look ahead.

Want to get off to good start by issuing statement tomorrow. So will discuss at noon.

Sherpas will work on text tonight.

Hope you will agree to simple, bold text. Know that some want to add passages on East/West, Gulf, etc. Prefer to deal with these separately. Foreign Ministers will draft and we can discuss at lunch tomorrow.

Terrorism

Don't want to discuss now. But would like to discuss either towards end of afternoon plenary tomorrow or at dinner tomorrow night. Then agree a press release.

Concentrate tonight on following.

East/West

Soviets in hibernation. No movement likely for some months.

West must keep nerve. Not be rattled into making concessions.

Stay united and firm.

Readiness for dialogue - but should be measured and controlled (no rush to Moscow)

/ Arms Control

8:20: victory ²
without war.

Gold - they don't think we are sincere.

They only go to psychology of their own.

We remain calm -
so far, no further

Attendant. 'Patriotic' in Communist countries.

I don't understand it

Ran - Sit down together

Grudum - common values

M. S. no - one interested in common

Attendant - excitement

Russian feared we were going to reduce - deal with them.

Russians not aggressive
in Europe -

want to consolidate Europe . . .

Attendant - Europe with courage.

Arms Control

No concessions in face of Soviet intransigence.

Stress readiness to return to negotiations at any time without pre-conditions.

Deployments must continue.

Underline efforts at Stockholm, Vienna and Geneva (Chemical Ban).

Gulf

Latest sitrep to follow.

Still expect Iranian offensive.

Believe Iraqis can hold out provided ~~miracle~~ lasts.

Concern re attacks on shipping - immediate problem is to limit these.

/ Little

China - great victory
for Western world
USSR - change of leaders
