PRIME MINISTER'S

PERSONAL MESSAGE

SERIAL No. T126A/84

Dear Margaret:

To quote from your gracious letter of June 6, Nancy and I indeed had the "happiest of visits to London." As I noted in my letter of June 19, we truly appreciate all that you did to make our stay and the Tenth Economic Summit especially memorable.

Thank you, too, for the fine lithograph of the Tower of London and the Mint by Thomas Shutter Boys and for the medallion on the Economic Summit. They are perfect remembrances of our stay in London and of your close friendship. Nancy and I also particularly enjoyed the tea at Kensington Palace.

Please convey our best regards to Denis. Both of you have our warmest wishes.

Sincerely,

/S/

Ron
