Winter of Discontent

We were returned to Parliament Supreme
Uphold Rule of Law.
People didn't want to be pushed around Thought T.U.s had too much power over individual members.

What has been gained

1) Attitudes have changed
status or nationalist attitudes Practical progress
monopoly power

2) Perilous by some called many illusions to their outlook on their job.

Such moderation last week
was as great as before India

What has been

Gained

1 Attitudes have changed.

Strikes in nationalised industries

Privatisation programme

monopoly power

2 Resistance by some indeed

many T-U'ists to this onslaught on their jobs.

Steel production last week

was as great as

before strike.

There is no week, nor day, nor hour when tyranny may not enter upon this country if the people lose their supreme confidence in themselves and lose their roughness and spirit of defiance.

Tyranny may always enter - there is no charm nor bar against it. The only bar against it is a large resolute breed of men.
