My dear Margaret:

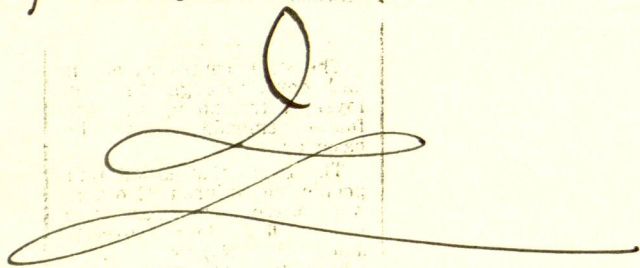

I write this on my return from Luxembourg and before I have heard your speech, wh: I am having video taped.

It is just to say how much I grieve for you all and especially Norman & Mrs P, and John and Mrs Wakeham.

But it just underlines the wickedness of hatred and the necessity of continuing to fight the good fight against the forces of darkness.

All my love to all involved, and
with special feeling for you.
