THE PRIME MINISTER

Dear Jim,

Thank you for your kind message following the explosion in Brighton. As I made clear in my speech at the Party Conference, all attempts to destroy democracy by terrorism in this country will fail.

Yours ever

Dear Prime Minister

I convey the heartfelt relief of the Ulster Unionist Party and of the people of Ulster that you have been spared hurt in this conspicuous outrage.

We know from experience that neither violence nor threats will affect your determination to stand your ground. In this connection we cannot but have in mind the approaching summit meeting with the Irish Premier.

Yours ever
