10th December 1984

Dear Mr Murphy,

We have recently received the message which the Bromsgrove Conservative Association sent following the bomb outrage in Brighton. Although it has taken a little while to reach us, it is no less appreciated. The Prime Minister found great strength and comfort in the many hundreds of messages which she received in the aftermath of this tragedy. They helped to demonstrate the overwhelming feeling of our people that terrorism and violence must never prevail over freedom and democracy.

The Prime Minister has asked me to pass on her grateful thanks and best wishes to all members of the Bromsgrove Conservative Association.

Yours sincerely
Michael Alison
