CHARLES H. PRICE II
AMBASSADOR OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
LONDON

Dear Prime Minister,

It was extremely thoughtful of you to provide for my return transportation to London. The convenience and privilege of flying with the R.A.F. was duly appreciated by your graciousness and the distinct honor of joining you at Camp David.

Prime Minister, I have always known you to excel at whatever you do - be that the clear presentation of your views at the warm provisions of your hospitality and kindness.

Carol joins in sending you and Denis our best wishes for a very happy holiday season.

Sincerely,
Charlie
