PROPOSED NEW CANADIAN HIGH COMMISSIONER

Thank you for your letter of 2 February about the Canadian Government's intention to appoint Mr. Roy McMurtry as Canadian High Commissioner in London. The Prime Minister is content for the appointment of Mr. McMurtry to be announced on Monday, 4 February. She would not wish to trouble Mr. Mulroney to telephone her on this. In any case, she is already heavily engaged on Monday. But she looks forward to an early opportunity to meet Mr. Mulroney for a thorough discussion.

I should be grateful if this message could be conveyed through our High Commissioner in Ottawa.

CHARLES POWELL

The Resident Clerk,
Foreign and Commonwealth Office.
