PRIME MINISTER

EDUCATION: VICTOR ROTHSCHILD

Victor Rothschild telephoned this morning about your conversation last night with his cousin, Evelyn de Rothschild. Evelyn had told Victor that you wanted to talk to him about education and Victor was ringing to say that he was at your command.

Would you like us to arrange for Victor to come in for a talk after your meeting with Mr. Baker on Tuesday 10 June? So as to structure the discussion, I would let Victor Rothschild have the note attached which outlines the most important topics for the discussion.

Agree to proceed on this basis?
