

1. MR. ALEXANDER
2. MR. WHITMORE

Audience: Tuesday 10 February

The Prime Minister's last Audience was on 16 December. There are a wide range of possibilities for discussion tomorrow. On the overseas side, the Prime Minister should mention her visit to Holland. She should perhaps report further on the Canadian Constitution issue, which must be the central question mark over The Queen's possible visit to Canada in the summer. She may also need to touch on Irish matters again, although these came up in both the last two Audiences before Christmas, which were either side of the Prime Minister's Dublin visit. Iran might also rate a mention. If the Fisheries Council has come to an end, the Prime Minister might want to report.

On the domestic side, key decisions since the last Audience have included the 6 per cent and 11 per cent cash limits; and funding decisions on BL and BSC. Other possibilities are "The Times", water workers' pay, and the seamen's dispute.

I suggest:

- (i) The Prime Minister's visit to Holland;
- (ii) The Canadian Constitution;
- (iii) <sup>Poland;</sup> Public sector cash limits;
- (iv) Funding for BL and BSC;
- (v) "The Times".
