BUCKINGHAM PALACE

3rd December, 1981.

Dear Clive,

We spoke on the telephone about the Prime Minister's audiences for the first part of next year. Would the following dates be convenient?

- ✓ Tuesday 9th February)
- ✓ Tuesday 23rd February)
- ✓ Tuesday 2nd March) all at 6.30 p.m.
- ✓ Tuesday 9th March)
- Monday 15th March) possible Gandhi visit.
- ✓ Tuesday 23rd March)

Reception for CPA 1830-2000? Wednesday? would be better for us

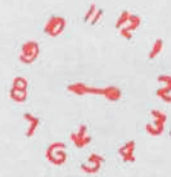

I have not suggested an audience for Tuesday 16th February because The Queen may well be in Ottawa. Monday 15th March is suggested because Tuesday 16th March is the date of the State Banquet for the Sultan of Oman.

*Yours sincerely,
Philip Low*

Thank you for your letter of 8 December about dates for the Prime Minister's audiences.

I agree that we shall have to drop the idea of an audience in the week beginning 15 March, 1982.

Dear Clive,

Thank you for your letter of 4th December 1981 about dates for the Prime Minister's audiences. I am afraid that Wednesday 17th March 1982 is no good for The Queen since she is attending the Authors of the Year Reception that evening. I think therefore we shall have to abandon any idea of an audience for that week. The Queen and the Prime Minister will of course be meeting that week during the State Visit by the Sultan of Oman.

Yours truly,

Philip Glass

Dear Philip,

Thank you for your letter of 3 December 1981 proposing dates for the Prime Minister's Audiences for the first part of next year.

The dates you suggest are all convenient for the Prime Minister with the exception of Monday 15 March. She is already committed to hosting a reception that evening. She is, however, free on the evening of Wednesday 17 March. Is that day convenient for The Queen?

Yours ever,

Anne Whitmore.
