Dear Clive,

Mr. Whitmore all ok. But we go from April 23rd to May 12: with no audience.

I should like to suggest the following dates for the Prime Minister's audiences for the period May - July 1982:-

C.
14/12

- ✓ Wednesday 12th May )
- ✓ Tuesday 18th May )
- ✓ Monday 24th May )
- ✓ Tuesday 22nd June )
- ✓ Tuesday 6th July )
- ✓ Tuesday 13th July )
- ✓ Tuesday 20th July )
- ✓ Tuesday 27th July )

all at 6.30 p.m.

✓ The Queen will be out of London from Monday 3rd to Wednesday 5th May: so I have not suggested an audience for that week.

✓ The Queen has a long standing engagement on Tuesday 11th May and I have therefore suggested Wednesday 12th May.

✓ The Queen is away from London on Tuesday 25th and Wednesday 26th May and I have therefore suggested Monday 24th May.

✓ I have not suggested any audiences in the first three weeks of June since we are keeping the first fortnight open for a possible visit by President Reagan and the third week is Ascot.

✓ The Queen will be in Holyrood for the week beginning Monday 28th June.

Yours truly,

Philip Glanville

Thank you for your letter of 6 January 1982 about the Prime Minister's Audiences.

I am very grateful to you for arranging for the Audience planned for Tuesday 20 July to be changed to Monday 19 July.

Dear Clive,

Thank you for your letter of 5th January about the Prime Minister's audiences. The Queen would be glad to receive the Prime Minister on Monday 19th July instead of Tuesday 20th July.

Her Majesty will also be inviting the Prime Minister and Mr. Thatcher to the Dine and Sleep at Windsor Castle on Thursday 1st April.

Yours war,

Dear Philip,

Thank you for your letter of 30 December 1981 about the Prime Minister's Audiences for the first half of 1982.

The Prime Minister will be in London on Tuesday 16 February 1982 and will be glad to have an Audience on that day.

Mrs Thatcher is very grateful to The Queen for her invitation to a Dine and Sleep at Windsor, and she and Mr Thatcher would like to accept for Thursday 1 April.

I am afraid that the Audience arranged for Tuesday 20 July is not now convenient for the Prime Minister. I am sorry about this, particularly since it was only three weeks ago that I wrote to you accepting all the dates you had offered for the period May-July. The Prime Minister is free on Monday 19 July and Wednesday 21 July, and I wonder whether either of these dates would be convenient for an Audience instead of Tuesday 20 July.

Yours ever,

Anne Whitmore.

Dear Clive,

Thank you for your letter of 14th December 1981 about Prime Minister Audiences for May - July 1982. I can confirm that The Queen will officially be in residence at Windsor Castle from Monday, 29th March to Friday, 30th April 1982. This is the usual procedure for April.

Her Majesty would, however, wish to invite the Prime Minister to a Dine and Sleep at Windsor. The dates next year are Thursday, 1st April, Tuesday, 6th April and Thursday, 22nd April. Perhaps you would kindly let me know which would be convenient for the Prime Minister.

Since The Queen will not now be going to Ottawa for the patriation of the Canadian Constitution on Monday, 15th February, 1982, it would be possible for the Prime Minister to have an Audience on Tuesday, 16th February 1982. I should be grateful if you could confirm that this is all right.

As you know, the Prime Minister gives receptions for Members of Parliament and their wives following the garden parties at Buckingham Palace. One of the dates this year is Tuesday, 20 July, but we have an Audience pencilled in at 1830. Would it be possible to ask Philip Moore to change the date? I could, of course, find another date for the reception but the convenience of having the reception on the same date as the garden party is that the Members' wives are all in London.

Dear Philip,

Thank you for your letter of 11 December 1981 suggesting dates for the Prime Minister's Audiences for the period May-July 1982.

All these dates are convenient for the Prime Minister, and it is very helpful to us to have them so far in advance.

My only comment is that there is no Audience planned at present between 23 March (the last date suggested in your letter of 3 December) and 12 May (the first date proposed in your letter of 11 December). The Prime Minister at present intends to be in London for virtually the whole of April, but I imagine that the same is not true of The Queen and that this is why you have not suggested any dates in this period.

Yours sincerely,

Anne Whitmore.
