Dear John

MINISTERIAL GROUP ON PUBLIC EXPENDITURE: MISC 99

At our first meeting yesterday MISC 99 agreed that it might be necessary to consult you, perhaps at short notice, about the likely reaction amongst our supporters in the House to specific public expenditure proposals. Accordingly, it will be useful for you to receive copies of MISC 99 papers, so that the main issues will be familiar in advance.

I attach copies of the papers already circulated; copies of all future papers will be sent to you.

I am copying this letter to the Prime Minister and to Sir Robert Armstrong.

John
Wakeham
