PRIME MINISTER

Mr. Heseltine told you yesterday that he is to visit the Falklands in January. You said to me that you hoped Foreign Office Ministers would not be going there as well.

Earlier this month you agreed that Lady Young should go to the Falklands from 9-18 January. Do you now wish this arrangement to be changed?

A.S.C.

I think it absurd for both to go.

15 December, 1983

Richard must go.
