Prime Minister

I thought you might like to see this note from an anonymous Yorkshire woman about the coal dispute.

Dear Mrs. Thatcher

I want to thank you for not letting the lights go out this winter; for making sure we kept our electric fire; & our coal fire.

Nobody has ever saved us before in past winter coal strikes, so I was dreading lighting candles & filling hot water bottles & being afraid of the rule of the mobs. (who have the most say & are in the minority, at that) in my opinion.

Yours respectfully,

A Yorkshire
Woman.
