15.3.85

On 30 March it is the sixth anniversary of Airey's death. You said you wished to send flowers to his grave whilst you remained Prime Minister. I take it therefore you wish me to do this ?

Dear Margaret,

Thank you very very much for the perfectly lovely flowers which were delivered on Saturday morning, so I was able to put them on Airey's grave myself with mine, and many little bunches - mostly from unknown people - appeared during the day.

His grave is beautifully kept by a man who came to Hinton Waldrist as a child evacuee and was so happy he has stayed ever since.

There are so many people who come to see the window in Hinton Church; I am glad you could come to the one in Essex, as we had an IRA Alert, so Police and dogs were everywhere.

Thank you so much for remembering the day, it means such a lot to me.

Yours affectly
Diana
