Don Robin

The Prime Minister has minuted ^{at fiapp120} me to suggest that we might meet to discuss my Department's plans for improving value for money.

You met my predecessor in May, and I do not wish to change the targets which he discussed with you then. I suggest that, if we arrange to meet in the autumn (say towards the end of October) we shall have up-to-date information on progress towards these targets in the first half of 1986/87. The Rayner Scrutiny programme should also be well under way, and we will be making preparations for the Department's 1987 Plan. I should very much welcome an opportunity to discuss progress with you at that stage.

If this is acceptable to you, my private office will be in touch with yours about a date.

I am sending a copy of this letter to the Prime Minister and to Sir Robert Armstrong.
